

Summer Internship Application

Purpose:

To give college and/or seminary students the opportunity to experience ministry in a real life setting. Pitts Baptist Church would like to provide experience in this area over a ten-week period during the summer break. In some instances, college credit may be earned for the experience. It is also our goal to see God call young people into full-time ministry or even confirm His call through this internship.

Responsibilities:

Early Childhood and Children's Interns are under the direction of Jennifer Brayley, Director of Children's Ministry and Amy Alley, Director of Early Childhood Ministry. Youth Interns are under the direction of Rev. Kevin Knight, Minister to Students. College Interns are under the direction of Rev. Kevin Seger, Associate Pastor. Intern responsibilities are assigned based on the assessed talents and abilities of the student.

Requirements:

- Must LOVE children/youth and be able to work and communicate with children, teens, and adults.
- A student who feels like God has called them or may be calling them into full-time vocational ministry.
- A person willing to give of themselves sacrificially for the work of the Lord.

Work schedule:

- Total of 11 weeks over May - August
- Thirty hours per week
- Hours are flexible each week depending upon specific scheduled activities

Financial Support and Benefits:

- The church will pay the intern $200 per week for a total of ten weeks.
- One week of unpaid vacation time (Time must be approved and may not be taken during VBS or a camp week).

Completed applications and two (2) reference forms should be returned by April 15 to the church office.
